

The Fig Man of NM

Saturday, March 25th, 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

At the Mano y Mente building in Tularosa, 216 Granado Street

Learn of the 400 year history of figs in NM from Lloyd Kreitzer. The morning lecture is part history, part story telling and part deep passion/dedication for the fig. The afternoon workshop will showcase "hands-on" propagation techniques, followed by a walking tour.

Full event: $25

10-11:30 Lecture and Q&A: $10

11:30-12 Catered lunch

12-1:30 Propagation workshop: $20

Optional walking tour afterwards

Register at www.trytularosa.org or call 505-710-2924

Event and lunch sponsored by:

Tularosa Arts and History Council

Native Plant Society of NM – Otero Chapter

Jornada Research Institute